NINTH ANNUAL BELL HELICOPTER ARMED FORCES BOWL DATE - For the second-straight year, the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl is set for 11 a.m. (CST) on Friday, December 30 at Gerald J. Ford Stadium in Dallas. The first four Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl games were pre-Christmas affairs with an early evening kickoff with each being played on December 23. The next four games featured post-Christmas kickoffs with late morning kickoffs with the first three being played on December 31. After playing the first seven Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl games at Amon G. Carter Stadium in Fort Worth, the 2010 game was played December 30 at SMU’s Gerald J. Ford Stadium due to the renovations at TCU complex.

2011 BELL HELICOPTER ARMED FORCES BOWL OPPONENTS - The Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl continued to develop its national presence as the 2011 postseason collegiate football game will have Brigham Young University as a possible opponent for a Conference USA school if the Cougars are bowl eligible after completing the 2011 season playing an independent schedule. A Conference USA school has competed in seven of the past eight Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowls with the 2007 game featuring a contest between the Mountain West Conference (Air Force) and the then Pacific-10 Conference (California).

BYU - BYU is currently 3-2 after the Cougars posted a 27-24 come-from-behind win over Utah State in Provo on September 30. The Cougars opened the season by winning at Ole Miss 14-13 before losing 17-16 at Texas and 54-10 at home to Utah. BYU bounced back from the Utah setback to down UCF 24-17. BYU has a 43-12-1 all-time record against current Conference USA schools.

CONFERENCE USA - A C-USA school played in the first four Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl games before missing the 2007 game when Cal from the Pacific-10 Conference filled the spot against the Mountain West Conference (Air Force). While 2006, 2008 and 2009 Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl games featured C-USA schools and institutions from the Mountain West Conference, the 2010 post-season contest pitted independent Army against SMU of Conference USA with the Black Knights posting a 16-14 win over the Mustangs before a Gerald J. Ford Stadium record crowd of 36,742.

BELL HELICOPTER ARMED FORCES BOWL TICKETS - Tickets for the 2011 Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl went on sale September 1. From September 1 through November 14, the cost of public stadium seating will be $50 per seat for the 2011 bowl game. From November 15 through the December 30 kickoff, the cost per seat will be $60. The bowl is also selling a limited number of premium club seats for $150 per ticket located in Ford Stadium's indoor club section on the west side of the stadium. Group ticket packages are available online at www.ArmedForcesBowl.com. Detailed ticket information for the 2011 Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl can be obtained through the bowl's web site or by calling the bowl office at 817/810-0012. As part of the bowl's tribute to the armed force, military veterans receive discounted tickets at $30 per ticket and active-duty military personnel receive free admittance via the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl corporate military ticket underwriting program.

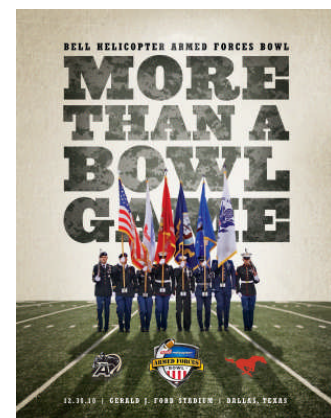

GERALD J. FORD STADIUM - Due to the continued renovations at Amon G. Carter Stadium, the 2011 Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl will be played at the 32,000-seat Gerald J. Ford Stadium on the campus of Southern Methodist University in Dallas. After playing the first seven Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl games in Fort Worth, it was announced at the end of July 2010 to move the game to Dallas due to the planned Amon G. Carter Stadium renovations on the campus of Texas Christian University. The bowl management and SMU announced April 19, 2011 that the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl would remain in Dallas for a second year. TCU's $143-million renovation of the west side and north end zone of Amon G. Carter Stadium began immediately following TCU's final 2010 home game and is slated for completion prior to the Horned Frogs' 2012 regular season. Completely funded by donor support, the renovated Amon G. Carter Stadium will have a seating capacity of 43,000 that can be expanded to more than 50,000.

BELL HELICOPTER - A Textron Inc. Company, Bell Helicopter agreed August 23, 2006 to title sponsor the post-season college football game formerly known as both the PlainsCapital Fort Worth Bowl (2003 and 2004) and the Fort Worth Bowl (2005), which is now the Armed Forces Bowl. With those changes, the official name is the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl. Bell Helicopter announced the renewal of its option to sponsor the 2008 and 2009 games at a 2007 Team Announcement Party (December 7, 2007). On September 9, 2009, President and CEO John Garrison announced a new agreement for Bell Helicopter to continue as the Armed Forces Bowl title sponsor through the 2011 game with a set option for two additional years for the 2012 and 2013 contests.

Bell Helicopter- Textron is an American manufacturer of commercial and military helicopters and tiltrotor aircraft with its headquarters in Fort Worth. Bell Helicopter provides the United States Armed Forces with the world's best military helicopters, including the V-22 Osprey, the OH-58D Kiowa Warrior, the AH-1Z Viper and UH-1Y Venom helicopters. 2010 BELL HELICOPTER ARMED FORCES BOWL - Army's wins and losses in recent seasons have many times been determined by the turnover margin. Before a Gerald J. Ford Stadium record crowd of 36,742, the Black Knights used three first half turnovers to provide the spark for a 16-14 triumph over SMU in the eighth annual Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl. The victory pushed Army's final record to 7-6, the first winning season in 14 years. SMU wound up with a 7-7 ledger. On SMU's third play of the game, quarterback Kyle Pardon fumbled and senior defensive end Josh McNary picked up the loose ball and ran 55 yards for a touchdown to give Army a lead it never relinquished. Linebacker Stephen Anderson, Army's Most Outstanding Player with his game-high 14 tackles, and sophomore defensive back Josh Jackson had first half interceptions to stall SMU drives. Army entered the game tied for seventh nationally in turnover margin at +1.08 a game. Since the start of the 2006 season, the Black Knights are 14-4 when winning the turnover battle. Despite holding the edge in the turnover battle and benefitting from two missed SMU field goals, Army need two big offensive plays to secure the win. After SMU's Matt Szymanski missed a 47-yard field goal with 4:05 remaining in the game with Army nursing a 16-14 lead, the Black Knights offense ran out the clock thanks to two big third down plays. On third-and-five from their own 35-yard line with 3:20 showing on the clock, quarterback Trent Steelman ran for six yards and a first down. Then facing a third-and-four from the Army 47-yard line with 1:18 remaining, Steelman connected with Davyd Brooks with a 22-yard pass to seal the victory.

GERALD J. FORD STADIUM

In the history of the SMU football program, June 13, 1997 and September 2, 2000, may stand out as the most significant days since the program's inception in 1915. The first date is when University officials announced that significant funds had been raised to begin construction on the brand new Gerald J. Ford Stadium. The second is the date that Mustang football returned to campus with the inaugural game in the stadium against Kansas. The state-of-the-art facility would not have been possible without the generous donations of Gerald J. Ford, Lamar and Norma Hunt, Ray L. and Nancy Ann Hunt, and Sherrill and Jo Ann Pettus, all of whom are SMU alumni. Gerald J. Ford Stadium, finished in August of 2000 on the former Ownby Stadium grounds, has a horseshoe configuration with an open south end zone adjacent to Mockingbird Lane. The architecture is consistent with the Collegiate-Georgian style of the entire SMU campus and features traditional, yet state-of-the-art design concepts. The stadium has a seating capacity of 32,000 with the possibility for future expansion to 45,000. The 32,000-seat configuration includes nearly 600 preferred club level seats and 240 seats in 24 spacious luxury suites housed in a custom, three-level press box. In addition to housing preferred club and suite seating, the air-conditioned press box provides excellent sightlines and comfortably accommodates more than 125 working print, radio and television media. The playing surface is 25 feet below ground level, with half of the stadium's seats sunk below grade, ensuring a smooth transition into the surrounding neighborhood and the remainder of the SMU campus. Ford Stadium was designed by the sports and entertainment design division of Ellerbe Becket, Inc., an architectural firm based in Kansas City, Mo.

NOT THE FIRST - The 2003 Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl was not the first post-season collegiate football game played in the city. The "Fort Worth Classic" was staged on New Year's Day 1921 when the promoters staged a game between TCU and the Centre College Praying Colonels, an upstart Kentucky team led by players from Fort Worth. Centre won the game 63-7. It would be another 16 years before Dallas would host the first Cotton Bowl. Fort Worth also hosted a 1940s small-college bowl game, the Cattle Bowl, on New Year's Day at LaGrave Field.

NAVY 2013 & 2016, ARMY 2014 & 2017 - It was in September that the United States Naval Academy has extended its agreement to also compete in the 2016 Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl after signing an initial contract to play in the 2013 game. The United States Military Academy also signed an agreement in September to play in the 2014 and 2017 Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl games.

RATTO REPORT

In the San Francisco Chronicle in December of 2007, Ray Ratto profiled schools that received bowl "invitations despite losing six games" during the regular-season. Through January 9, 2011, a total of 51 schools have entered a bowl game with a 6-6 record with 27 of those schools winning their bowl game. Four of the 6-6 teams (Oklahoma State in 2006, Alabama 2007, Iowa State 2009, and BYU 2010) defeated another 6-6 team (Alabama 2006, Colorado 2007, Minnesota 2009 and UTEP 2010). This season, 14 teams had 6-6 records with one bowl game (New Mexico) featuring 6-6 schools (BYU and UTEP).
